

Counselling and Support service

Encouraging mental wellbeing

Throughout our lives, we may experience times of feeling worried, unsure or down about things. Our Counselling and Support service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to support you and your family members deal with life's ups and downs.

Benefit from:

Unlimited phone support, available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year

Confidential live chat support from our counsellors

Chat online to counsellors at a time and place that works for you.

Up to five face-to-face or remote counselling sessions

Up to five face-to-face sessions or remote counselling sessions, where clinically appropriate following an assessment from our mental health team.

Everyday matters support and guidance

Support and information on a range of everyday matters, such as financial, legal, consumer, housing issues and family care, including childcare, eldercare and disability issues.

Online portal access

A wealth of up-to-date tools, information, guidance, and accessible support online.
